It contains important information and you should read these terms and conditions carefully before accepting your offer to ensure that you understand the contents as these will become binding on you and us when a contract is formed between us in accordance with condition 2.

- 2.4 In the event of a conflict between these terms and conditions and the regulations, policies and/or procedures of the University of Kent which apply to your studies, the regulations, policies or procedures of the University of Kent shall take precedence. 2.5 The contract may be ended by London Contemporary Dance School and Conservatoire and your enrolment terminated if the relevant conditions are not met or our terms not complied with, as set out in the documents specified in condition 2.2, above. For example, failure to comply with London Contemporary Dance School and Conservatoire Codes of Conduct could result in London Contemporary Dance School taking action against you under the Conservatoire Non-Academic Misconduct policy, which could result in termination by London Contemporary Dance School of your enrolment on your course and of the contract.

2.6 London Contemporary Dance School is a sponsor for the purposes of sponsoring students who wish to study there from outside the EEA and has measures in place to ensure that it complies with its obligations to the UK Government in relation to immigration. 3. Enrolment and re-enrolment

3.1 Your place on a course at London Contemporary Dance School will be conditional on you complying with enrolment conditions including any conditions relating to your fees and enrolling at the start of your course and at the start of each subsequent academic year.

3.2 You must enrol at the designated session at the start of your course, as set out in your introductory information and induction pack. If you cannot or do not enrol at the designated session you must provide London Contemporary Dance School with a reason for your non-enrolment which is acceptable to London Contemporary Dance School in order to be permitted to enrol on another occasion, otherwise you will not be entitled to enrol for that year of study (or any future year of study) and your relationship with London Contemporary Dance School and this contract shall be terminated.

3.3 The deferral of the offer of a place for enrolment in a later year of study is not normally permitted by London Contemporary Dance School. Failure to enrol at the start of your course in accordance with condition 3.2 will result in your relationship with London Contemporary Dance School and this contract being terminated and you will need to reapply from the start to be considered for a place to study at London Contemporary Dance School in a future year.

3.4 Provided you are eligible to re-enrol (which means you have met the assessment and progression requirements, do not owe the London Contemporary Dance School any outstanding course fees and have not been suspended from the course for any reason including, for example, relating to disciplinary or unsatisfactory progress procedures) you must re-enrol for each subsequent year of study using the approved procedure. If you cannot or do not re-enrol using the approved procedure you must provide London Contemporary Dance School with a reason for your non-enrolment which is acceptable to London Contemporary Dance School in order to be permitted to enrol on another occasion, otherwise you will not be entitled to enrol for that year of study (or any future year of study) and your relationship with London Contemporary Dance School and this contract shall be terminated.

4. Your obligations

4.1 In enrolling with London Contemporary Dance School as a student, you become part of London Contemporary Dance School's community. From the point your offer is confirmed you are required to abide by the regulations, rules, policies and procedures set out at condition 2 above, copies of which can be obtained from the School Office. You are required at all times to behave courteously and respectfully towards other students and members of academic and non-academic staff, including visiting professionals, in accordance with the Conservatoire and London Contemporary Dance School Codes of Conduct.

4.2 Your obligations to London Contemporary Dance School are to:

- 4.2.1 Pay your course fees and other required fees when due as set out in London Contemporary Dance School's Fees Policy and in the offer letter. If you cease to be a student of London Contemporary Dance School, because for example you withdraw from your course or London Contemporary Dance School terminates your enrolment, for example due to non-payment of fees, you may still be liable for any outstanding fees (see condition 8 below).
- 4.2.2 Be responsible for your own learning, making use of the appropriate equipment and facilities and complying with the rules and regulations established by London Contemporary Dance School for the use of resources and facilities as set out in the London Contemporary Dance School Codes of Conduct.
- 4.2.3 Participate actively in your training, including meeting the London Contemporary Dance School's rules around attendance, which do not generally allow for absence other than in exceptional circumstances, and do nothing that will hinder or interfere with the training of other students.
- 4.2.4 Meet assessment deadlines, including attendance requirements for continuous or performance-based assessment.
- 4.2.5 Familiarise yourself with and comply with the relevant Regulations of the University of Kent, the Conservatoire and London Contemporary Dance School Codes of Conduct and all other rules and regulations, policies and procedures listed as condition 2.2 above which govern the operation of your course and your relationship with London Contemporary Dance School.

5. Our obligations to you

- 5.1 London Contemporary Dance School's obligations to you are to:
 - 5.1.1 Provide you with the tuition, pastoral and learning support associated with your course with reasonable care and skill;
 - 5.1.2 Subject to conditions 16 and 17, deliver your course as described in the prospectus and summary course document for the duration of the course; and
 - 5.1.3 Ensure that you are assessed in line with the relevant Regulations of the University of Kent.

6. Termination of contract and enrolment

- 6.1 You may withdraw from London Contemporary Dance School and terminate this contract and your enrolment as a student at any time by giving written notice to London Contemporary Dance School by sending an email or letter to the address set out in condition 21.4 below. Any such withdrawal will take effect when the named contact receives the communication from you.
- 6.2 London Contemporary Dance School may terminate this contract and your registration if, in accordance with these terms and conditions and the appropriate regulation, policy or procedure:
 - 6.2.1 you do not pay your course fees when due;
 - 6.2.2 you fail to disclose relevant information to London Contemporary Dance School or have produced false, incorrect or misleading information, whether in the course of your application or whilst on your course;
 - 6.2.3 your student status is terminated (for example under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy), or (in the case of an international student requiring immigration permission to enter or remain in the United Kingdom) if London Contemporary Dance School removes its sponsorship from your visa; and/or

6.2.4 you materially breach any of the terms and conditions of the contract: for example, failure to abide by health and safety requirements in line with theatre industry guidelines or serious cases of non-approved absence, or serious breach of London Contemporary Dance School Student Code of Conduct;

6.3 If the contract and your enrolment have been terminated, your entitlement to a refund of course fees and/or other fees will be in accordance with London Contemporary Dance School's Fees Policy.

6.4 On termination of the contract and your enrolment, you must return your student ID and any other property owned by London Contemporary Dance School to the School Office.

7. Intermission of studies

7.1 You may be permitted to intermit your studies, with permission from London Contemporary Dance School in accordance with London Contemporary Dance School Intermissions Policy. Depending on its length, approval may be required from the University of Kent before a period of intermission can be granted. All periods of intermission count towards the maximum period of time for the completion of your programme.

7.2 London Contemporary Dance School and Conservatoire may, on occasion and in line with relevant Regulations of the University of Kent, require you to suspend your studies if it determines that you are not able for any reason to participate in the course, for example in accordance with the Support Through Studies policy (or equivalent).

7.3 During the intermission of your studies, London Contemporary Dance School may make adjustments to your course, in line with the terms outlined in conditions 16 and 17. You will be consulted as soon as London Contemporary Dance School is aware that changes may affect your course.

7.4 If your enrolment is interrupted or terminated for whatever reason, this may affect any bursary or scholarship awarded to you.

8. Fees and Costs

8.1 This section sets out key conditions relating to fees. You should consult the London Contemporary Dance School's Fees Policy for full information on fees and debts. <https://www.lcds.ac.uk/policies-and-procedures>

8.2 It is important that you read the Fees Policy carefully as this sets out London Contemporary Dance School's and your respective rights and obligations including but not limited to circumstances in which sums paid to London Contemporary Dance School will be refunded. It also sets out the potential consequences if you fail to make payment, which includes London Contemporary Dance School's ability to terminate your registration and this contract, and/or to withhold awards. In addition, non-payment of fees and/or charges could result in London Contemporary Dance School taking legal action against you to recover outstanding amounts.

8.3 We may require you to pay a deposit to confirm the offer of a place on a course. Course fee deposits are not normally refundable.

8.4 Course fees for each year become payable on enrolment and at re-enrolment each year. Course fees include: tuition, course materials, learning resources and assessment costs, and are set out in London Contemporary Dance School's Fees Policy.

8.5 The specialist equipment used in some dance specialisms can be expensive, but it is normally possible for London Contemporary Dance School to supply you with access to the equipment you will need for your course.

8.6 Course fees do not include some personal materials, such as practice clothes/kit and books.

- 8.7 For students paying Home / EU undergraduate fees who are new entrants to a course in 2019/20 or new entrants to a course in subsequent years, the course fees confirmed in your offer letter may be increased in further years of study by an inflationary amount determined in accordance with measures set by Government (currently the Office for Budget Responsibility forecast for RPI-X, being the retail price index, excluding mortgage interest payments). Any such increased fees will not exceed the fee cap current in respect of the relevant period. For all other undergraduate students and for all postgraduate students who are new entrants to a course in 2019/20 or new entrants to a course in subsequent years, the course fee confirmed in your offer letter may be increased in subsequent years of study but this increase shall be limited to the increase in Retail Price Index for the preceding year or 5%, whichever is the greater.
- 8.8 It is your responsibility to ensure that all deposits, tuition and other course fees and charges payable to London Contemporary Dance School are paid when due. Your offer letter will state the amount of course fees that you will be required to pay. Where it is agreed that fees may be paid in instalments, these must be received on time. Late or non-payment may result in your removal from any instalment plan. Unless you have the prior written agreement of London Contemporary Dance School to a different schedule of instalments, course fees must be paid in accordance with the schedule of instalments relating to your specific course, as outlined in the Fees Policy.
- 8.9 If you are paying your course fees with a government-sponsored loan, you must provide proof to London Contemporary Dance School before enrolment that you have the necessary finance in place. If you are not able to provide proof, London Contemporary Dance School may require that you pay the first instalment of your fees yourself.
- 8.10 Please note that if someone other than you makes any payment, or agrees to make any payment, on your behalf, you remain liable for full payment until London Contemporary Dance School has received cleared funds.
- 8.11 If you do not pay course fees in accordance with these terms, London Contemporary Dance School reserves the right to withdraw your place on the course, and/or suspend or withdraw you from the course until any fee debt is paid or cancelled by London Contemporary Dance School in accordance with its Fees Policy. If you cease to be a student of London Contemporary Dance School, because for example you withdraw or London Contemporary Dance School terminates your registration, you may still be liable for any course fees and/or other charges which are outstanding, in accordance with the Fees Policy.

9. Risk of Injury and Health Insurance

- 9.1 London Contemporary Dance School aims to provide a well maintained environment that all users and staff members find safe and enjoyable and in which you can seek to achieve your learning goals effectively. In providing this environment, London Contemporary Dance School understands and complies with its legal obligations to act reasonably to safeguard the health and safety of its students.
- 9.2 Pursuant to these terms and conditions, all students are required to familiarise themselves fully with and to adhere to London Contemporary Dance School Code of Conduct <https://www.lcds.ac.uk/policies-and-procedures>. You are required to take care for your own safety and for the safety of those around you, and to ensure that equipment that you own is suitable for the proposed use and regularly checked and maintained.
- 9.3 You should be aware, however, that London Contemporary Dance School courses and their assessments can be physically demanding. In addition, dance by its very nature includes elements of risk including injury. Whilst we take reasonably practicable measures to reduce or eliminate these risks, it is not possible to eliminate them all. For this reason we would encourage you to consider taking out private health insurance to support you with any medical treatment that you may require. Health care can be obtained free of charge from the NHS but waiting times for treatment are unpredictable and may result in disruption to and interruption of your studies. Long periods of absence may result in you being unable to complete the course.

- 9.4 London Contemporary Dance School also offers a Physical Support Package for an annual fee of £40, payable on registration / re-registration at the start of each academic year. The full document can be found at the following link: <https://www.lcds.ac.uk/fees-and-financial-assistance>. If you would like further information about this, please contact the Head of Physical Support Kim Hutt (kim.hutt@theplace.org.uk).

10. Personal equipment and other property

- 10.1 London Contemporary Dance School can accept no responsibility for loss or damage to your equipment or other property which is incurred at London Contemporary Dance School or otherwise in the course of your studies.

11. Intellectual property

- 11.1 Intellectual Property Rights shall mean all patents, rights to inventions, copyright and related rights, moral rights, trade marks, rights in designs, rights in computer software, database rights and other intellectual property rights.
- 11.2 If you are studying for an undergraduate or taught postgraduate degree, unless agreed otherwise, you shall own any intellectual property you generate and provide to London Contemporary Dance School during your course.

12. Criminal convictions

Information about how London Contemporary Dance School processes criminal records data, including the procedures under which this information is handled, is found in the Conservatoire's Criminal Records Policy.

13. Data Protection

- 13.1 London Contemporary Dance School and the Conservatoire (each a "Controller") collect, hold and otherwise process "personal data" (which may include "sensitive personal data" as defined by the Data Protection Act (2018) or "special category personal data" as defined by the General Data Protection Regulations (2018) about applicants and students of London Contemporary Dance School which is provided to them by you (or which is otherwise received from third parties) for their own, separate purpose(s), in accordance with each Controller's Data Processing Statement. The Conservatoire's Data Processing Statement can be found at <http://www.cdd.ac.uk/policies/student-related-policies/>. London Contemporary Dance School has a Privacy Notice for students, which can be found at <https://www.lcds.ac.uk/policies-and-procedures>, and also follows that of The Place, available at <https://www.theplace.org.uk/privacy-policy>.
- 13.2 This personal information is generally processed by each Controller for the following general purposes: to administer admissions, courses of study and pastoral care; to monitor student performance; to send communications to students; to compile statistics for internal monitoring and enhancement purposes or for publication; and to make required returns to external bodies, including to the regulator (the Office for Students) and agencies of UK Government (eg as a condition of leave to remain in the UK). More specific details are set out in each Controller's Data Processing Statement and <http://www.cdd.ac.uk/policies/student-related-policies/>.
- 13.3 Schools of the Conservatoire for Dance and Drama will share, as necessary, information with the Conservatoire (including Shared Services and other members of Schools)/validating university regarding student cases¹ which may include personal and sensitive data as part of the fair and proper investigation and handling of a student case, and to maintain and enhance standards and good practice. 'As necessary' means where it is necessary to share information regarding a student case in order to investigate and resolve it (including Appeal

- 13.4 Please note that by providing your personal information to each Controller, you are providing your consent to the processing of that personal information by that Controller where, in accordance with the relevant Data Processing Statement and any other information and/or consent form(s) provided to you from time to time, that is the basis for lawful processing of your personal information.

14. Safeguarding and Communication with Parents

London Contemporary Dance School has policies on safeguarding children and vulnerable adults, and on communication with parents for students who are under 18 years of age or in a vulnerable position. Further information about the policies can be found at <https://www.lcds.ac.uk/policies-and-procedures>

15. Choice of on-course activities

- 15.1 Subject to condition 18 (events outside our control) and our rights to make changes to courses and/or to these terms and conditions under conditions 16 and 17, London Contemporary Dance School will deliver courses as set out in the prospectus and course summary document referred to in condition 2.2.4. However, you should note that the structure of London Contemporary Dance School's courses requires students to undertake a number of small group performance projects and similar activities and you may on occasion be asked to express preferences for which of the available group performance projects or similar activities you wish to undertake. Whilst London Contemporary Dance School undertakes to provide each student with an appropriate range of opportunities throughout the duration of the course as set out in the prospectus and course summary, London Contemporary Dance School does not guarantee to accommodate the individual preferences of students in its allocation of performance projects or similar activities to students, although it will make reasonable endeavours to meet student preferences. Consequently, you may not get to take part in the group performance projects or similar activities that you have expressed as being your preferred projects or activities and, where this is the case, London Contemporary Dance School will not be in breach of the contract.

16. Course changes, discontinuance, suspension and non-provision

- 16.1 If it reasonably considers it to be necessary, London Contemporary Dance School may make reasonable changes to the content, syllabus, mode of delivery and/or timetable of courses set out in the prospectus and course summary document which:
- 16.1.1 are not material to the overall learning outcomes of the course (for example, moving the timing of a particular module or project within the year, or a change in the staff delivering the module or project);
 - 16.1.2 will benefit your or other students' training (for example, enabling you or other students to benefit from additional classes with visiting professionals);
 - 16.1.3 are caused by matters outside our control (as set out in condition 18); and/or
 - 16.1.4 are in order to comply with changes in the law and/or the instructions of London Contemporary Dance School's or the Conservatoire's regulators (such as the Office for Students), a validating university, and/or professional body.
- 16.2 London Contemporary Dance School may discontinue, suspend and/or not provide courses if there are insufficient numbers of student enrolments to make a course viable and/or for any reason outside London Contemporary Dance School's control (as set out in Condition 17).

- 16.3 Where changes are to be made to courses in accordance with condition 16.2 which are not significant, we will, following suitable consultation with affected students, take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity and to minimise any disruption to your studies (if you are affected by the change).
- 16.4 In the unlikely event that London Contemporary Dance School changes a course significantly:
- 16.4.1 London Contemporary Dance School will, following suitable consultation with affected students, take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity and minimise any disruption to your studies (if you are affected by the change);
 - 16.4.2 you will be entitled to withdraw from the course by informing London Contemporary Dance School of this intention;
 - 16.4.3 If you withdraw from the course, London Contemporary Dance School may (if reasonable to do so), refund course fees and/or deposits paid (albeit please note that, if reasonable, refunds may be calculated on a pro rata basis) and
 - 16.4.4 where reasonably practicable, London Contemporary Dance School will offer you a place on a course which London Contemporary Dance School deems a suitable alternative.
- 16.5 In the unlikely event that London Contemporary Dance School discontinues, suspends and/or does not provide a course, in consultation with the University of Kent:
- 16.5.1 London Contemporary Dance School will, following suitable consultation with affected students, take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity and to minimise any disruption to your studies (if you are affected by the change);
 - 16.5.2 London Contemporary Dance School will refund course fees and/or deposits paid (albeit please note that, if reasonable, refunds may be calculated on a pro rata basis); and

 - 17.1.5 in the event of changes in London Contemporary Dance School's validation arrangements, for example where the University of Kent determines to amend any of its regulations, policies or procedures which apply to your programme.

17.2 Where changes are made to the terms and conditions of the contract under condition 17 we will undertake (where necessary) suitable consultation with students and (where necessary) take all reasonable steps to communicate and explain these changes you with as much notice as possible.

18. Events outside our control
